Medical Education

Old Dominion University, Masters of Science in Nursing, 2005

Old Dominion University, Doctorate of Nursing Practice, 2012

We are pleased to welcome Katie Caton, DNP, NP-C, ACHPN as the newest provider at The Outer Banks Hospital Hematology/Oncology practice. Ms. Caton graduated from Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA with a Masters of Science in Nursing followed by a Doctorate in Nursing Practice.

Ms. Caton comes to us from Sentara Brock Cancer Center, Supportive Care Services, in Norfolk, VA. There she was instrumental in the development of a new outpatient palliative care program as an Advanced Practice Clinician Team Lead. She also spear headed the creation of a telehealth palliative care program and was involved with the development of a home-based palliative care program for oncology patients.

She exhibits detailed knowledge of various oncological diagnoses, chemotherapy and immunotherapy treatments, and has the ability to accurately manage aggressive symptom management.

Specific areas of interest are palliative care, survivorship and symptom management.
